March 2nd>
1801.

The King Is recovering fast, both in head and health, and there will of course be no motions made in the House about his situation. This may, perhaps, make some favourable turn with regard to me.

Another month begun, and yet no satisfactory accounts of my dear son ! My hopes and fears are exactly what they were, and I wait in silence and sullen patience the accounts from Jamaica.

March
$th.

How charming was the country this morning, the sun bursting upon one in every corner as I passed through the Hammersmith Gardens! I have done your commission with the Louther-bourgs. If I am to write or go to them again, I will the first opportunity; for I would at any time, and more now than ever, pay at your orders a visit to the Witch of Endor, ancient or modern, n'importe qui.

I have received letters from Padre Minasi and Abb6 Campbell. The latter says he never met